Democrats Carried at Least Twenty Counties.

While King Carried His Old Home County of Millard-Box Elder County Is in Doubt-On the Vote Cast Wednesday the Legislature Would Be Composed of Fifty-one Democrats and Twelve Republicans-Returns by Counties.

The additional returns received yesterday did not show the same Democratic strength as those reported on election night, and Judge King's majority will be not far from 4,100. The returns are all in except from the most remote precincts, which must come by mail, and the vote stands as follows: King, 30,058; Hammond, 25,852; King's majority, 4,206. The precincts that

It is interesting to note that so uniform is the Democratic vote throughout the state, and so evenly is it distributed, that the Democrats carried twenty of the twenty-seven counties, and the same result next fall would make the legislature stand fifty-one Democrats and twelve Republicans. This estimate gives the Republicans the counties of Box Elder and Wayne which are in doubt.

RESULT IN WEBER.

Official Count Will be Necessary to Decide It.

(Special to The Herald.)
Ogden, April 3.—The county commissioners will canvas the votes of Monday's election next Monday. The official count will be required to determine the result in Weber county. At present there seems no reason to change the figures given in the complete returns published this morning ir The Herald, giving King a majority of 5. The Republican chairman Springville 443 389 456 321 still claims the county for Hammond American Fork 386 386 367 384 and the Standard figures a plurality of 6 for the Republican candidate. In any event the result was close and the official canvas must decide.

The result in the city was a surprise to all but the most sanguine Democrats. The Democratic committee, to be conservative, has represented to the county committee that the Republicans might carry this town by 40 majority, but that the Democrats were hopeful of keeping this down. But when the returns came in from the different districts and a in from the different districts and a Democratic majority of 13 was figured out, there was a feeling of joy in Democratic ranks, and all hands pro-

VICTORY IN CACHE. Democrats Stayed at Home, But Car-

(Special Correspondence.) Annabella (Maj.)..... 30 Logan, April 3.—Cache county's ma-ority for William H. King thus far Central jority for William H. King thus far is exactly 900, with but one place, the small precinct of Avon, to hear from and in this place the Democrats will perhaps lose by 7 or 8 majority.

Hammond has carried two precincts in the county. Paradise and College by a majority of 8 in each case.

He will probably carry Avon, which polls 35 votes all told.

Smithfield cast 16 of Hamlin's 25 votes received in this county.

Most of the votes polled by the Democrats in the entire county were brought in after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Despite the large majority of the Democrats, they suffered most by the stay-at-home vote. A full vote such as may be expected next fall would have given King 1,250 majority.

ELECTION IN DAVIS.

Democrats Suffered Most From Stayat-home Vote.

(Special Correspondence.) Kaysville, April 3 .- The result of the election in Davis county yesterday shows that the Republicans came much nearer polling their full strength than did the Democrats. There was a de-gree of apathy in some precincts that cut down the usual majority of 500 to 385 for King. This was not unexpected, because of the very busy season in farming and gardening districts. In fact, the Democrats were unusually accurate on their estimate of the result Chairman Parnes predicting Sunsult, Chairman Barnes predicting Sunday evening that the majority would In some precincts encouraging Dem-

The total vote of the state will be about 59,750, a falling off of about 5,000 from 1898.

It developed yesterday that Hammond had carried but two precincts in his bome county of Cache, while Judge King wrested his home county, Mil-

Vernal, April 3.—Complete returns from all precincts in Uintah county except Lucern Valley give King 200 majority. Lucern Valley will add ten more, making a total of 210. Hammond carried only one precinct in the county, Dry Fork, which gave him one majority.

In 1888 Roberts received 53 per cent of the total vote cast. Yesterday King received 55 per cent. The outside precincts show a very light vote, reducing the vote cast to not over 50 per cent of the registration.

King Carries Millard.

(Special to The Herald.) Fillmore, April 3.—Eleven precincts out of the thirteen in Millard county gave King 654 votes and Hammond 631. The two precincts yet to hear from are Eurbank and Smithville, which will not reach us till Thursday. The vote of these precincts cannot change the result. The Democratic county chairman claims these precincts for King by 10 majority. The Republicans claim that they will get a smail majority from them, but give the county to King by 18. There was but 70 per cent of the votes cast in Millard. Hamlin got three votes.
